AN eCommerce SOLUTION THAT WORKS FOR YOUR BUSINESS

Finally, an eCommerce solution that truly works for your business. RMSfusion delivers a highly automated solution which starts at your brick and mortar store and provides automation all the way through the shipping process. We like to refer to it as Brick.Click.Ship. You will not require an IT professional, since RMSfusion is designed to be your full-time webmaster. The full featured shopping cart is integrated with your Microsoft Dynamics RMS or POS2009 Point of Sale System and affordably automates your daily processes.

Simply and quickly upload products to your website, eBay, Google, Facebook and Amazon! Choose between manually processing orders or utilize complete order automation. Synchronize inventory with your web store so you never sell out of stock items, unless you wish to. This elegant solution will save you hours and increase sales through multiple channels!

With free support and updates, your investment is minimal.
